What a great week! Our Quiz Night saw 19 teams (over 130 competitors) having a lot of fun and competing to win the supreme prize. Thank you to Mr Rod Davis for his leadership and quick wit keeping the night entertaining. He was ably supported by teachers and a fantastic group of FundFinders. A special 'Thank you' to Sammy-Jo who sourced most of our sponsors.

THANK YOU to our sponsors who all gave us awesome prizes for our Quiz Night!
The money raised will help reduce the cost of camp for our Year 5 and 6 students in November.

SENSATIONAL SPORTS WORD

Term 2, Week 9, 2018

The weather is becoming colder, but that isn't stopping our brave and brilliant sports kids!

YEAR 5-6 RIPPA RUGBY

Firstly, another HUGE congratulations to the girls Rippa Rugby team for your performance. You were amazing to watch and the teamwork was sensational!

Last Thursday, the two boys teams followed in the footsteps of the girls by playing in an all day Interschool Rippa tournament at Playford Park. The competition was tight and plenty of schools brought their 'A game'. One of our teams played off for 7th and 8th position and came 8th but improved remarkably with every game they played. At the beginning of the day they were losing by four points, and the try tally was low. At the end of the day however, they were scoring more tries and even scored themselves a draw!

Our other boys team managed to successfully perform in each of their games, winning all except one. They made it into a very exciting final which ended in a draw. Due to that, the winner was decided by the number of tries each school had scored. During the day, St Joseph's had scored 23 tries, and we had scored 21. So close!

Both boys teams played their heart out and I couldn't have been prouder of their effort, teamwork, fair play and behaviour.

A huge SHOUT OUT to the supporting whānau; Pam and Tyrone, Meredith, Tama, Catherine, Tarshaun and Evan.

And another SHOUT OUT to the supporting coaches; Mr D, Mr Bennett, Mr Perigo, Mr Prior and Eli from HKRFU.

BASKETBALL, WINTER HOCKEY AND NETBALL

Games continue for these sports. I hear nothing but fantastic feedback from coaches, managers and kids. Keep up the amazing work everyone!
